World Team Australia appoints new Director

Tim Cranna has been appointed the Executive Director of World Team Australia. He will work from World Team's office near Melbourne.

Tim and his wife Briana

Prior to joining World Team, Tim was the CEO of MMM Australia (previously Mobile Mission Maintenance) for 7 years. MMM Australia's Mission was to build and maintain facilities used in Christian service. During his time there, he made many changes and improvements, including establishing a commercial building company, to serve churches and missions.

Tim was born in South Africa and is married to Briana, an Emergency Nurse. They have three grown children and two grandchildren. The family moved to Melbourne, Australia in 2000.

Tim attended the University of Cape Town, South Africa. His previous Pastor says of Tim that "Tim has a passion for church planting – it is in his DNA!"

Tim's desire for World Team Australia is to: increase its footprint, raising awareness of World Team Australia and mobilising more workers to go to unreached peoples.
